Last Will and Testament of Thomas Lloyd of Empton

Made 11th February 1880

Proved at Hereford 28th May 1880

Died 19th February 1880

The last will and testament of me Thomas Lloyd of Empton in the Parish of Kington in the County of Hereford, Farmer revoking all other wills heretofore made by me. First I give devise and bequeath all that my freehold farm and lands with all its privileges and apportionments hereto belonging called and known by the name Blaenbedw in the Parish of Glasscomb in the County of Radnor unto my son Hugh Lloyd his heirs executors, administrators, assigns forever subject nevertheless to the payment of the following sums of money at the expiration of one year after my decease. Namely to Thomas – William and Evan – my three sons – also Anne Meredith – Elizabeth James and Sarah Morgan – my three daughters their heirs or assigns as the case may be. I will and direct to be paid from the above farm by my said son Hugh the six several sums of one hundred pounds each – also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mary one annuity of fifteen pounds to be chargeable on and payable from the above named farm by my said son Hugh or his successors which may be in possession of the said farm – the above named sum to be paid unto my said daughter by two equal instalments of seven pounds and ten shillings each. The first payment to be made at the end of six months after my decease and to continue to be paid at the end of every succeeding six months during her natural life.

Proviso – If my son Hugh should die without a male heir, my will is that the said farm above shall become the property of my son Thomas Lloyd – if living – if not – my will is that the oldest son of the said Thomas Lloyd shall be owner thereof – for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators assigns forever. Secondly all my personal property whatsoever and wheresoever I divide to be sold by my hereinafter mentioned Executors and soon as convenience may be, and from and out of the proceeds thereof to pay all my just debts, funeral expenses, the expenses incurred in the execution of this my will and all other legal and reasonable expenses incurred in the discharge and in connection with the duty devolving upon them in the executing and completing my will and from and out of the paid money I direct my said Executors as soon as convenience may be to pay unto my son Evan Lloyd one hundred pounds. Also to keep in hand seventy pounds until my Granddaughter Anne Lloyd, daughter of my deceased son John<sup>1</sup> shall arrive at the age of Twenty one years to be then paid over to her with all interest that may have been received for the same beginning to bear interest at the end of one year after my decease. And all the rest and remainder of my said personal estate, after the beforementioned deductions I direct to be equally divided by my Executors as soon as it conveniently be realised – and paid over to the following persons, their heirs or assigned – namely – my three sons Thomas, William and Evan and my three daughters Ann Meredith, Elizabeth James and Sarah Morgan. I also nominate, elect and appoint my son Thomas Lloyd, my son in law Samuel Meredith and John Griffiths of Portway Executors of this my will, but if in the execution of their duty inn respect of this my will any profit of the paid moneys cannot be recovered, my Executors shall not be responsible for it unless it be through their error or neglect. To which I sign my name in the presence of the following witnesses.

Signed published and declared by the testator Thomas Lloyd as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses this 11th February 1880.
